Special Duties for Sex Offenders while Traveling:

- Adult sex offenders who leave their county of residence for travel inside the United States of America for a period of three (3) or more consecutive days must report in person, to the sheriff in each county of residence, and provide the above information within three (3) business days prior to travel. Upon return from such travel, adult sex offenders must report to the sheriff within three (3) business days of return in each county of residence.
- Adult and juvenile sex offenders traveling outside of the United States of America must report in person, to the sheriff in each county of residence, and provide the above information at least 21 days prior to leaving their county of residence. If the travel to another country is for a family or personal medical emergency or a death in the family, the offender must report in person, to the sheriff in each county of residence, within three (3) business days prior to travel. Upon return from such travel, sex offenders must report to the sheriff within three (3) business days of return in each county of residence.
- Sex offenders must sign this form stating that they understand the requirements above.
- Any violation of any of the above provisions constitutes a Class C felony.

By signing below, I acknowledge that I have read the above information and responsibilities and that I am aware of all that is required of me under the Alabama Sex Offender Registration and Community Notification Act. If I fail to comply with any provision of the Act, I understand that I may be charged with a Class C felony in Alabama. I certify that all the information contained in this form is true and correct.
