

Declaration and Claim of Exemption for Wages (Request to Protect Wages)

Case Number:

In the Court of County, Alabama

Plaintiff's Name (person or company that sued you)

Defendant's Name (your name)

Name of Defendant's Employer (Garnishee)

If a garnishment has been filed against you, but you cannot pay for your basic living expenses and pay the judgment, you may use this form to ask the Court to protect your paycheck. (This form is not for judgments related to child support, personal injury, or car accidents.)

If the court approves this Request, the Plaintiff cannot collect the money you owe from your paycheck, but you still owe the judgment, and the Plaintiff can try to collect it in other ways.

I declare and claim:

- I live in County, Alabama.
My employer is:
The amount of my paycheck before taxes, child support, and any other deductions is usually: $
I receive that amount (check one): every month every 2 weeks every week other (specify):
The amount of pay I normally receive is less than $1000. Because of that, I claim it as exempt from legal process for the collection of debt under Ala. Const. Art. X, § 204.

I list all of my property below (for purpose of inventory only). All of it is located where I live.

Do not list your home, land you own, or any property that your spouse or children own. If you need more space, attach another sheet.
