ORDER AFTER PRELIMINARY HEARING

On today's date the above styled matter came on to be heard pursuant to the Defendant's demand for a preliminary hearing pursuant to Rule 5.1 Ala. R. Crim. P. At said hearing only evidence that was relevant to the question of whether probable cause exists to believe that the defendant committed the charged crime was admitted. Additionally, all parties had the right to cross-examine personally the witnesses who testified. Also, the defendant was given the opportunity to introduce evidence on his own behalf as long as it was relevant to the issue of probable cause.

Pursuant to said demand, a preliminary hearing was held on this day, here in the District Court of Jefferson County and the Court hereby finds:

- () 1. The defendant having previously requested a preliminary hearing herein comes now before the Court and in open court waives his/her demand for a preliminary hearing. Case bound over to the Jefferson County Grand Jury.

- () 2. That probable cause exists to believe that the defendant committed the charged crime and his/her case is hereby bound over to await the further action of the grand jury. The Defendant may remain on his/her same bond pending the further action of the Grand Jury.

- () 3. The Court hereby finds that no probable cause exists to believe that the defendant committed the charged crime and this complaint is hereby dismissed. Defendant is hereby discharged as it relates to this case only.
